Shakespeare and Media Change

A Lecture by Katherine Rowe, Ph.D.

Thursday, October, 22, 12:30 p.m.

Holroyd 190

(reception to follow)

Dr. Katherine Rowe, Chair of English at Bryn Mawr, teaches and writes about Renaissance drama and media history. Her latest book, New Wave Shakespeare on Screen (Polity Press, 2007), explores recent trends in Shakespeare adaptation across media. Her current projects include a modern edition of Macbeth and a study of adaptation as a cultural process.

Dr. Rowe is Associate Editor of The Cambridge World Shakespeare Encyclopedia, responsible for the online edition, and serves on the editorial board of Shakespeare Quarterly.

Dr. Rowe's appearance is underwritten by a generous subvention from the College of Arts and Sciences, Dr. Thomas A. Keagy, Dean, with additional support from the La Salle Honors Program, Dr. James A. Butler, Director.

From: John F. Dolan

Subject: Enrollment Services Appointment

I am pleased to announce that Terry Jackson, Director of the Part-time MBA Program has been appointed to the position of Director of Enrollment Services, Graduate and Adult Programs, effective October 12, 2009.

In her new position, Terry will be responsible for promoting the University's graduate and adult academic programs with an emphasis on new program development and maximization of enrollment in current programs, including improving conversion rates of applicants and retention of current students.

A 1979 Alumna, Terry earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Education from La Salle and both a Master of Management and a Master of Education (training and instructional systems design) from Penn State University. She has been director of La Salle's part-time MBA program since 2001. During her tenure, she instituted a Saturday MBA Program, participated in the selection of and oversaw a campus move to Plymouth Meeting, and collaborated in the formation of a Women's MBA association and a city wide non-profit case competition for MBA students. Terry was also recently selected to participate in the Lasallian Leadership Institute (LLI), a three year mission and leadership development program.

Prior to joining La Salle's staff, she had a successful career in the management consulting, corporate training, behavioral health and human resources industries.

Please join me in congratulating Terry on her appointment.

The De La Salle Symposia

You are invited to explore the Catholic and Lasallian heritage of La Salle University this school year through the writings of John Baptist de La Salle.

Five 90-minute sessions (one each in November, December, February, March, and April) are planned. Writings will be reviewed with scholarly rigor while maintaining an informal 'book club' atmosphere.

Topics include:

The Personal La Salle: de La Salle's personal and professional journey in light of his personal biographical writing taken from various stages of his life;

La Salle the Educator: de La Salle's pedagogical principles, teaching strategies, his observations about decorum and civility and his classroom innovations;

La Salle the Founder: de La Salle's ability to structure the pedagogical initiatives of the community and his leadership in the management of the association of teachers responding to the educational needs of youth;

La Salle the Catechist: de La Salle's approach to evangelization through education, the writings regarding Christian initiation in the church and faith development;

La Salle the Spiritual Guide: de La Salle's spiritual journey and his role as spiritual mentor to others, his writings to support the spiritual development of those involved in education, especially his teaching about work and prayer.

Through these topics, we will address the challenge of translating De La Salle's vocabulary and his educational mission into our world. It is our expectation that Symposia participants will supply additional topics and angles of approach.

For the fall semester, symposia will be held on Thursday afternoon November 12 and December 10 beginning at 3:30 p.m. at a location to be announced. Each session will be led jointly by Brother John Crawford and Brother Miguel Campos. All reading materials will be provided free, as will refreshments at the discussion sessions.

Seating is limited. Those interested in participating should notify the Office of Mission Integration by Wednesday, October 14. Please contact Ray Ricci via email at ricci@lasalle.edu or by phone at campus extension 1079.

TURKEY AND THE ARMENIAN GENOCIDE

Featuring Taner Akçam, Ph.D.
Wednesday, October 28, 2009
1–2 p.m., Dunleavy Room

Taner Akçam, Ph.D., is an associate professor of history at Clark University in Worcester, Mass. Since 1990, he has focused his research on Turkish nationalism and the Armenian Genocide, with 11 books and numerous articles to his credit. With his first book, Türk Ulusal Kimliği ve Ermeni Sorunu (The Armenian Question and Turkish National Identity), published in 1992, Akçam became the first scholar of Turkish origin to publish on the heretofore-taboo topic of the Armenian Genocide. Three years later, at the International Genocide Conference in Yerevan, Armenia, Akçam's presentation on Turkish nationalism and the Armenian Genocide marked the first public acknowledgment of the Armenian Genocide by a Turkish lecturer.

Akçam's life and work have been featured in four critically acclaimed documentary films. In 2007, the Armenian Bar Association honored him with the Hrant Dink Freedom Award, calling him "a champion of historical truth about the Armenian Genocide." He has also been honored by the Harvard University Foundation for Intercultural and Race Relations and the Massachusetts State Legislature. He serves on the editorial board of Genocide Studies & Prevention, the official journal of the International Association of Genocide Scholars.

We would like to thank Professor Vince Kling for his contribution to this program.

The Driver Safety Awareness Training will be given during this Fall Semester on the following dates and times:

Thursday, October 15, 2009 from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.
Thursday, November 12, 2009 from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

The program will be presented in Olney Hall, Room 100.

University policy requires that the operator of any University vehicle possess a La Salle University Operator's Permit. Policy also requires that operators previously certified need to renew their permit every three years. Consequently, new employees and students wishing to operate University vehicles and those employees and students that have been previously certified but whose permit is set to expire, are invited to attend the above referenced sessions. Additional sessions will be scheduled throughout the year on dates that are not yet determined.
